Check Appropriate Boxes:

1. ☐ The agreement between the registrant and the above-named foreign principal is a formal written contract. If this box is checked, attach two copies of the contract to this exhibit.
2. ☐ There is no formal written contract between the registrant and foreign principal. The agreement with the above-named foreign principal has resulted from an exchange of correspondence. If this box is checked, attach two copies of all pertinent correspondence, including a copy of any initial proposal which has been adopted by reference in such correspondence.

3. ☒ The agreement or understanding between the registrant and foreign principal is the result of neither a formal written contract nor an exchange of correspondence between the parties. If this box is checked, give a complete description below of the terms and conditions of the oral agreement or understanding, its duration, the fees and the expenses, if any, to be received.

A decision of the Jamaican Cabinet of Ministers in March 1988 approved the establishment of JAMPRO. Through this decision the functions of JAMPRO were mandated as the modernization of industry, and the promotion of trade and investment both locally in Jamaica, and overseas, thus continuing the work of the three previously existing organizations; the Jamaica National Export Corporation, Jamaica National Investment Promotions Ltd. and the Jamaica Industrial Development Corporation through one merged entity with one consolidated budget.

4. Describe fully the nature and method of performance of the above indicated agreement or understanding.

JAMPRO has offices in New York and Miami. The staff of these offices seeks to promote trade and investment through meeting with potential importers and exporters and investors, holding luncheons and seminars, distributing pamphlets and materials on Jamaica and meeting with appropriate U.S. Government officials. JAMPRO is wholly funded by the Government of Jamaica. As with its predecessor organizations, the JNEC and the JNIP, JAMPRO will report its expenditures every six months in its supplemental statements.
